

VIKING NAVIGATOR

October 2023

Hello Pumpkin

VVPTA PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We are excited to report that you helped raise over $50,000 during the Apex Fundraiser! We hope your students enjoyed the daily POWER lessons. Our next mission is to coordinate with Newhall School District to plan the funding of our shade needs on campus. The fundraised dollars also fund school assemblies, field trip buses, the Reflections Art Program, Science Fair, classroom stipends, etc. Thank you for donating!

October is full of dress-up fun! Make sure to get in the spirit during Red Ribbon Week and Halloween with the following dress up days!

Mon, October 23: Wear a neck tie or bow tie

Tues, October 24: Wear your clothes inside out

Wed, October 25: Wear something sporty

Thurs, October 26: Wear Neon

Fri, October 27: Wear Pink

Tues, October 31: Costume Day

Mark your calendars for our Halloween Parade on the morning of October 31st! Students, teachers, staff and volunteers are invited to wear their Halloween costumes to school. Parents and guardians will be welcomed on to campus that morning to see their princesses, princes, fairies, & firefighters parade around the playground in their costumes. Please be on the look out for Mrs. Wilson's message about costume dos & don'ts.

Attn 6th Graders: starting the first of October, 6th Grade families may pre-order a yearbook for their 6th grader (only) at a special, limited time, price. Keep an eye out for a flyer coming home.

Looking forward to seeing you all at the Carnival!

Your VVPTA President,
Kelly Berry
